

BUCKINGHAMSHIRE

Churchyard yew measurements

Location	Girth at ground	1'	2'	3'	4'	5'	Other	Recorder
Hughenden A yew with a known planting date of 1612 (according to documents held in the county records office)
				342cm (11' 3") at 1m				2014 Alderman
Ibstone
				18' 6"				1954 Swanton p35/36
	21' 9"	21' 7"		19' 8"			19' 10"	2001 Hills
				19' 10" at 3' 6"				2014 Norton

Little Missenden			14'				1923 (Notes and Queries)
					15' 5"		2009 Ancient Tree Inventory

Stoke Hammond

The two yews were planted in 1687 when 'those two trees att ye church door was sett by me, George Bate, Rector'.
(tree furthest from church)				7' 7½" at 4' 3"			1913
				11' 8" at 4' 3". This figure includes swelling that supports branch development.			2011 Hills
(tree nearest church)				7' 6" at 3' 6"			1913
				10' 2" at 3' 6"			2011 Hills

Westbury

The yew is thought to have been planted in 1660, when the vicarage was built.
				8' 4"			1907
				8' 6"			1913 (Notes and Queries)
	9' 7"		9' 4"	9' 5"	9' 9"		1936
			12' 6"	12' 8"			2011 Hills

Compiled by Tim Hills 2024
© Ancient Yew Group